

2015 Vanuatu Cyclone Disaster- NetHope Crisis Informatics Overview

This is an evolving visualization of public humanitarian data from the 2015 Vanuatu Crisis produced by the NetHope Crisis Informatics Program and the Open Humanitarian Initiative. Final attributions and final links to HDX source data forthcoming.

Mobile Phone Subscriptions (1990-2013) United Nations Development Program

Airports of Reported High Priority Areas

NetHope, founded in 2001, is an information technology collaboration of 42 leading international non-governmental organizations (NGOs). NetHope has provided its members with assistance in meeting the ICT needs that arise following major disasters, including 2004 SE Asia tsunami, 2010 Haiti Earthquake, 2012 Typhoon Bopha and the West African Ebola Crisis.

